CINAHL 2012

Nazarko, L. (2009). A time to live and a time to die: palliative care in dementia. Nursing & Residential Care, 11(8), 399-402.

Hospice improves care for dementia patients and their families. (2011). Hospice Management Advisor, 16(11), 127-128.

Most hospices and palliative care programmes in the USA serve people with dementia; lack of awareness, need for respite care and reimbursement policies are the main barriers to providing this care. (2011). Evidence Based Nursing, 40-41. doi:10.1136/ebn1144

Coetzee, ,, Leask, ,, & Jones, ,, (2003). The attitudes of carers and old age psychiatrists towards the treatment of potentially fatal events in end-stage

